

CONSOLIDATED BISCUIT CO. LTD.

OUR STORY

1980

Incorporated between Maltese and Trinidadian shareholders in 1980.

1982

Started operation in 1982 under the Technical Assistance and Trademark Licensing Agreement with United Biscuits. The company started making British type biscuits and crackers under the McVitie's and Crawford's brands for the local market on two biscuit lines.

1986

In 1986 CBC diversified into snack foods production. Today the snack food factory has four lines; a Florigo pallet frying line, two American Extrusion lines making bake and fry type extruded products and a Cretor's heat popped popcorn line.

2002

The association with United Biscuit lasted 20 years and it came to an end in 2002, two years before Malta joined the European Union.

2004

Between 1987 and 2004 CBC established distributors in several Middle Eastern markets and it now sells its DEVON branded products in Lebanon, Jordan, Kuwait, Oman, Qatar, Dubai and Bahrain. CBC exports its products to over 25 countries.

Since Malta joined the European Union, CBC has also developed its business into niches of private label particularly for the UK and Irish markets.

2009

BRC Certification of biscuits & snack plants.

2015

A new savoury production line was installed.

2019

Opening of a new state of the art logistics centre & automated packaging hall.

2022

Opening of a new snacks production facility offering both extruded & fried snacks.

ABOUT US

Consolidated Biscuit, situated in the charming island nation of Malta, stands as a symbol of culinary excellence and innovation. With a rich history dating back several decades, our company has become a beloved fixture in the hearts and homes of Maltese families and visitors alike.

Our dedication to quality and taste has earned us a sterling reputation throughout Malta and internationally. We take pride in crafting a diverse range of biscuits and baked treats that cater to the unique preferences of our customers.

From our classic buttery biscuits, perfect for enjoying with a cup of tea while taking in the Mediterranean breeze, to our fruit-infused creations that capture the essence of the island's fresh produce, our offerings reflect our tradition.

At Consolidated Biscuit, we are not just a biscuits and snacks company; we are a part of the fabric of our nation. Our products are enjoyed in homes, at gatherings, and in moments of pure indulgence, making us a cherished part of one's daily life. Whether you're savouring a classic favourite or exploring new flavours inspired by our Mediterranean surroundings, our biscuits are a taste of our hospitality and rich culinary tradition.

Beyond our shores, we've extended our reach and have become an international ambassador of Maltese craftsmanship. We proudly export our exceptional biscuits to the Middle East, Europe, and Africa. Our commitment to using only the finest ingredients and upholding the highest standards of production remains unwavering, whether our products, wherever they are consumed.

As a testament to our dedication to excellence, we actively participate in major international fairs, showcasing our products and innovations to a global audience. These fairs allow us to connect with industry leaders from around the world, sharing our passion for flavour and quality and further solidifying our presence as a respected name in the international biscuit industry.

ABOUT MALTA

The Maltese archipelago consists of three inhabited islands, Malta, Gozo and Comino. They lie in the middle of the Mediterranean Sea with Malta 93 km South of Sicily and 230 km north of Africa. The total area of the Islands is 316 square km. And the longest distance on the island of Malta is 27 km.

Malta is blessed with one of the most agreeable climates in the Mediterranean. The weather is warm even in winter. Between April and September there is virtually non-stop sunshine. The hottest period is mid-July to the end of September, but the nights are tempered by cool breezes from the surrounding sea. The average summer temperature (May – October) is 23°C whilst that of winter (November – April) averages 11°C.

The official languages are Maltese and English. Almost all the Maltese speak English. Maltese is a Semitic language written in the Roman script comprising a vast element of words of Italian, French and English origin. Italian is also widely spoken.
